

CUSTOMFLEX® ARTIFICIAL IRIS: Photo of the Month

This 15 year-old girl suffered a fishhook injury OS. Anterior segment reconstruction with sutured IOL and CUSTOMFLEX® ARTIFICIAL IRIS resulted in 20/63 vision (despite the axial corneal scar), elimination of her glare and photophobia, resolution of her sensory exotropia, and restoration of her body image.

Images and case provided courtesy of Michael E. Snyder, MD, Cincinnati Eye Institute

To submit your case, please contact us at:

513-872-1330
schristensen@veo-ophthalmics.com